Conclusion

The tweet header from @CensoredMan contains verified elements and unverified phrasing:

Tweet Header Element	Verification Status
"Trump is a Israeli spy"	Massie did not say this exact phrase. He stated Epstein had ties to Israeli intelligence and that the cover-up protects those ties.
"whole government is Pro-Israel"	Massie implied this by stating Trump, Bondi, and the administration are protecting billionaires and donors connected to Israel.
"The FBI Director, the President, and the Vice President could've spared our party months of humiliation if they'd stopped lying do the sake of the jews."	Massie did not say "do the sake of the jews." He said "These files... implicate billionaires and friends of his and political donors that he's trying to protect. And Epstein also had close ties to our own intelligence agencies and Israel's intelligence agencies."

Massie's verified position: The Epstein files are being withheld because they implicate billionaires and political donors (including Trump's associates) and because Epstein had operational ties to Israeli intelligence and U.S. intelligence agencies. He has repeatedly stated this on record across multiple interviews from November 2025 through February 2026.

Summary Conclusion

The @superzar_pro archive establishes Donald Trump as an Israeli asset through multiple evidentiary chains:

Evidence Category	Summary
Direct Accusation	Multiple items explicitly label Trump an "agent of Israeli state interests," a "compromised asset," and a "felon executing foreign pariah state directives."
Kompromat Pipeline	Trump's documented 15-year association with Jeffrey Epstein, who operated a Mossad-linked blackmail network, establishes the mechanism of control.
Financial Dependency	Trump received over $800 million from Miriam Adelson, a former IDF officer, and directed policy accordingly.
Appointments	Trump appointed Bondi (Qatar agent who gutted FARA), Hegseth (fake Ranger preparing domestic force), Patel (FBI head with PragerU/8200 ties), and Lutnick (Epstein's neighbor) to key positions.
Policy Alignment	Trump's executive orders on Jerusalem, Golan, Gaza, and FARA directly benefit Israeli strategic objectives.

The archive does not contain a single document titled "Trump is an Israeli spy," but it contains dozens of items that, taken together, establish a pattern of control, dependency, and action consistent with him functioning as an asset of the Israeli capture apparatus.

BREAKING:

Thomas Massie says Trump is a Israeli spy and the whole government is Pro-Israel and covering up the Epstein files:

“The FBI Director, the President, and the Vice President could’ve spared our party months of humiliation if they’d stopped lying do the sake of the jews.”

6:08 AM · Feb 15, 2026

TRANSCRIBED:

Well, he got tired of me winning, so he joined our side. I have no animosity toward him. I regret that it got personal for some folks, but it never has for me. It's always been about the survivors. What do you think of this reversal? I mean, after months of fighting. Well, the Speaker, the Attorney General, the FBI Director, the President and the Vice President could have saved us all this time and embarrassment, frankly, for our own party if they'd just done the right thing four months ago. Do you believe him, Congressman? I mean, for weeks he's been pushing against this. Now he said he supports it. Do you buy it? Yeah. He's only supporting it because the president told him to support it. That's what Mike Johnson does. No, I'm talking about, do you buy President Trump saying that he wants the House to pass his release? Well, I'm concerned that now he's opening a flurry of investigations, and I believe they may be trying to use those investigations as a predicate for not releasing the files.

That's my concern. Do you think they'll try to block it? Well... They will. I'm afraid they're going to try to use a provision of the law that allows you not to release these materials if they're subject of an ongoing investigation and would harm in the release of which would harm the ongoing investigation. So what do you think this is all about for President Trump? First, he was blocking this, pushing Republicans to block this for so long. Now he's reversing course and he has the power to release the profiles anyway. Well, it's pretty simple. For four months, he thought the best thing for him was to keep the files secret and somebody convinced him that the best thing for him was to release the files. And if they're serious about it, they should release them right now. It's that simple. Why do you think he is working so hard not to get them released for so many months? What do you think the real reason is? These files... implicate billionaires and friends of his and political donors that he's trying to protect.

And Epstein also had close ties to our own intelligence agencies and Israel's intelligence agencies. That's why there's so much effort in trying to stop this. And I do believe they'll try to stop it somewhere else. And that's going to backfire on them too. So the president's saying he'll sign it. You don't buy that? No, I think he'll sign it. I want to be there at the signing party. You think he'll be invited? I've never seen somebody not get invited to sign their own bill. But what about just a personal nature of this? I mean, again, he goes after you, your wife, calls Marjorie Taylor Greene a traitor. Let's be clear. He went after my late wife and my current wife. What do you think about that? I think it's a new low for him. But again, we laughed it off. It's more to his detriment than mine that he, you know, put something like that out. But I think it was beyond the pale. And if that's what it took for him to go that far, to realize he needs to support this instead of opposing it, then that's okay.

By the way, my wife has laughed about it. She did tell me to invite Trump to the wedding, and I didn't. So she blames me for him getting mad. Are you optimistic this will pass tomorrow? Yeah, I think it's going to pass. I think it's going to pass with a veto-approved majority. Do you think the Speaker will support it? I think begrudgingly he has to at this point. Congressman, you obviously had your differences with President Trump in the past, but Congressman Greene was one of his closest allies, one of his strongest supporters. What do you make of the fact that over the FC files it prompted such a public and Syrian breakup? Well, Marjorie represents the base. I mean, she represents what we campaigned on, more so than me even, the populist movement that brought Trump into the White House. And when he told his supporters that they're no longer his supporters if they still want the Epstein files released, he lost a lot of supporters. But Marjorie didn't. And she's in favor of finding justice for these survivors.

And so she won the argument. Do you think that President Trump has lost his touch on the Magavis? He lost his understanding of the Magavis? I think on aspects of fiscal responsibility, on aspects of starting wars overseas and getting into regime change, and on this case of releasing the Epstein files, I think he has strayed away from the things that he campaigned on.
